

A Baby Lion!

Did you ever see one? It is as playful and harmless as a kitten. You might have one with you for weeks and not suspect danger. But, beware! Some day it will surely spring, and the fight for life is at hand. It is just so with a cough. You may carry one with you for weeks and not think of danger. But the danger is there. Some day the fight will be on, and it is a question which will win, Consumption or You.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

promptly cures all baby coughs; but it cannot always cure the full grown coughs of the most advanced stages of disease. Yet even here it will bring comfort and ease. Then use it early for acute colds, coughs, bronchitis and all pulmonary troubles.

Beware of cheap imitations. See that the name, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, is blown in the glass of each bottle. Put up in large and small bottles.

On a Serious Charge.

Mrs. Wm. Parker whose husband, now deceased, was at one time an employe of the Honolulu Iron Works, is at the Police Station, held for investigation, and it looks at the present time as if she will be held on a very serious charge.

Mrs. Parker is the mother of seven children. The home is in Pauoa. Yesterday afternoon, the mother returned in a very hilarious condition, she having been out with friends for a good time. The first thing was to take one of her daughters and simply mash her head on the floor. The child is now in the Queen's hospital in a very precarious condition.

"Good gracious, Maud, it cannot be that you are going to marry a newspaper man!"

"You must not breathe it to a soul, but I intend to break the engagement as soon as I get all my poetry printed."

We Know By Experience

Wise men use the experience of others and make it their own.

Those who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla are the ones who are competent to speak of its merits.

The testimonials of cures by Hood's constitute a vast mass of testimony which proves the power of this medicine to cure a great variety of diseases.

These cures often seem marvelous, yet they are perfectly natural and are easily explained. They are the necessary result of purifying and enriching the blood.

"I have been troubled with scrofula all my life, and it effected my eyes so that I was obliged to remain in a dark room. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Now my eyes are so strong that the light never troubles me, and my health is good."

FOR GOLD IN PHILIPPINES.

$75 to $100 the 50 lb. sack and all other necessities corresponding high. I offered $3.50 for a mule but could not get it. Of the 5000 population in the city on my arrival, about 750 took advantage of the freezing over of the river, about four days later, and started down the river, on short allowance of food, for Fort Yukon, a distance of 380 miles, 40 miles to procure food supplies at the A. C. & N. A. T. Co.'s stores or stores. These depots of supplies are situated at Fort Yukon, the highest point of navigation except for small trading boats, immediately after the breaking up of ice on the river. About 750 more started out by way of Lakes LeBerge, Bennett and Lindeman, once over the pass to Dyea. About 400 of the stamped out to Fort Yukon returned to Dawson City, the trip having occupied about four months. They had suffered very from cold on the trip. I was so intense, the thermometer frequently registering 60 deg below zero.

"Dawson City is of log cabins, no dancing halls, big saloons, refreshment rooms and gambling dens. Saloons supply drinks a 50 cents a glass, and girls frequently get half to an ounce of gold from "A to the goldfields, Eldorado, about three miles long, is the richest place I have ever seen, and Bonanza, Dominion, Sulphur and Tucker creeks, we good, and these with some bend around on Bonanza and Eldorado were all the payable grounds discovered up to my departure on August 3 last. All favorable grounds were pegged out when I reached the fields and enough men were there to work them, and as being payable had since been discovered, and the population had increased before I left to 50,000, a faced many strong and courageous fellows who landed there with nothing but a willingness to labor and a hope of obtaining work at big pay in the fields.

"Many experienced miners took in the situation at once, saw the difficulty of prospecting and the almost certain failure in staying, and disposing of their outfits and provisions for anything they could fetch, made their escape while they had means to do it with. This has had the effect of reducing the price of outfits and provisions, and wages have come down from $15 to $4 a day owing to increased labor supply.

"It is a hard country, the hardest to prospect I have ever struck and, as an experienced miner accustomed to the hardships of a miner's life, and having always gone with that follows new gold discoveries, I know what I'm talking about.

"Yes, I made some money at the fields. I cleared a little above expenses—about $1700. How? I prospected all winter and pegged out two claims that I afterward sold.

"No; I did not get any gold out of them. My locations were considered moderately favorable and found purchasers, but what I earned was far too little to induce me to stay in so uninviting a country, and I shall use every effort to persuade men from going there.

incurring untold hardships and risking health, where the chances are thousands to one against them. And should you know of anyone who may be thinking of going to the Yukon, out of kindness and the purest of good feeling, tell him for me to keep away.

"These fields are all plaza. No ledges or reefs have been discovered there.

"What was the general state of health when you left?"

"A few cases of scurvy was about all the sickness.

"The breaking up of the ice on the Yukon was one of the most impressive sights I ever saw. It took place very suddenly and was all over within a couple of hours."

"Are you on your way now to some new goldfields?"

"No. I'm going to the Philippine Islands, to under the more favorable laws of the United States which I presume and hope will, in the very near future, obtain there, and where I shall have a tolerable climate.

"The Spanish mining laws have not been favorable to miners in the Philippines, or I should have gone there from New Guinea before I heard of the Yukon."

Mr. Michael is highly intelligent and companionable and a few very pleasant and interesting hours were spent in his company by the mutual friend who has favored the BULLETIN with the foregoing account of his conversation.

bamboo thickets leaving, according to the estimate of the British Consul, 250 dead in the clearing.

"The poor marksmanship of the Spaniards resulted in the killing of three of the Nebraska Volunteers as they were coming down the road. The enemy invariably shot high.

"I had one man killed. A Mauser bullet hit the ramrod of his gun which pointed above the trench. This ricocheted and blew the whole side of his head off."

Mr. Leach has in his possession a Manila watch taken from a dead Spaniard that lay with many others in a rice field through which he passed on the day Manila surrendered. He also has swords, coins and other articles belonging at one time to the Spaniards.

COMMISSION CONCLUDING.

Object of Judge Frear in Going to Washington.

Today and tomorrow will most likely conclude the sessions of the Hawaiian Commission in Honolulu. Messrs. Cullom, Morgan and Hitt will leave in the steamer Gaelic, due Friday evening, for the mainland.

Judge Frear is going to find it difficult to get a steamer sailing his convenience for following the American members. The 12th of October is rather early for him, but the next one comes rather late on the 1st of November. He hopes President Dole, who does not want to go, may see his way clear yet for going.

"It is a very important matter. A very little thing now may make a great difference in the future."

"Your intention is to await the assembling of Congress, with its action on the Hawaiian matter?"

"Yes. Indeed, that is the principal object in going. We shall probably be wanted to appear before committees of Congress for the giving of information. That is an important stage, as whatever carries in committees is likely to be passed by Congress."

The Bulletin classifies its ads. Result—small advertisers get a square deal.

Recreation Wanted.

In his conversation yesterday, the report of which had to be condensed, Colonel Gorton of New Zealand said a great want of Hawaii was recreation. A large number of fine young men were engaged in the coffee industry and other pursuits, in the Hilo districts. Without organized means of recreation there was liability of these men gambling and liquoring. The remedy was in arousing practical interest in golf, cricket, football, etc.

Small ads. in the Bulletin are not overshadowed by bigger ones.

On Stock Exchange.

Stocks were dull on 'change this morning. No sales were made and but two sales reported from the street, 16 shares Hawaiian Agricultural at $380 and 15 shares Oahu Assessable at $137.50. Ewa is still at $240 Waimanalo is up to $197½ and Ookala opened at $110 but went to $100. Honokaa dropped five points being at $375. Dividends about to be paid on some stocks bid fair to make them active in the near future.

It is likely that either the Copie from San Francisco or the G. H. from China and Japan, will be in tomorrow night.
